Kritzer earns top producer honors at Fuller Towne & Country

Broker Associate

Janet Kritzer has earned individual Top Producer honors for the first half of 2006 at Fuller Towne & Country Properties, metro Denver's premier, locally owned and operated real estate firm.

Headquartered at Fuller Towne &

Country Properties' Denver

Tech Center office,

Kritzer closed in excess of $22 million in total real estate volume for the first six months of 2006, including more than $11 million in June alone.

"Janet is an innovative marketing specialist, whose fresh, creative ideas have elevated her sales production to an elite level," said Heather Baker, President of Fuller Towne & Country Properties. "She promises her clients top services and delivers, combining excellent communications with unique, highly effective marketing strategies that are custom tailored to suit the needs of each transaction. Janet's dedication to improving the customer experience with each transaction, has resulted in her more than doubling her personal sales since joining Fuller Towne & Country Properties."

Kritzer provides extensive buyer and seller services for clients and customersthroughout the metro Denver area. She has gained a reputation for outstanding service, groundbreaking solutions, top client communication, and cutting-edge technology.

"Janet exceeded our expectations in every way possible," said Jodi Rolland, a former client. "Not only was she extremely responsive, but also went the extra mile to make the sale of our home and the whole experience something we want to brag about."

Kritzer is a member of the Denver Board of Realtors. She holds a BS degree in Education and Consumer Sciences from Purdue University and recently completed the Certified Residential Specialist (CRS) designation from the National Association of Realtors. Kritzer joined Fuller Towne & Country Properties in 2005 after establishing herself as a top producer at Perry & Company. She has been involved in the metro Denver real estate industry for nearly three decades, starting out as investor and fix and flip specialist in central Denver's historic neighborhoods, including Washington Park, Park Hill, and Cherry Hills Village.
